Meet Stephanie Gossett

Candidate for Associate Pastor at St. John's and English

Stephanie Gossett is recommended for Call to the position of Associate Pastor to English Lutheran and St. John's Lutheran by the joint call committee.

Stephanie Gossett is a first call candidate from the Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast Synod. She completed her Masters of Divinity from Luther Seminary in St. Paul, MN this year. She opened herself to service in the wider church and was assigned to the Eastern North Dakota Synod. She is specifically looking for an Associate Pastor position and to be able to work with a team. When asked about why she is willing to leave Texas, she responded, "We've had 40 days over 100 degrees this summer."

Her personal ministry statement from her Rostered Minister Profile is: I am called: to lead and teach, directly and by example, how to identify both God and neighbor; to draw people into and help nurture the relationship God calls us to through: studying scripture, leading worship, joining in fellowship, and meeting God in mission where God is already working in the world, in order to foster understanding that each person is a minister with gifts to offer the priesthood of all believers, and that we must learn from one another through sharing those gifts in ministry together. (continues on p. 9)

Official Notice

Special Congregational Meeting

to Call Stephanie Gossett as Associate Pastor and to approve a compensation package will be held at St. John's Lutheran on Sunday, October 9th after 9 am worship.

I'm a Lutheran

Meggen Henke

I was baptized, confirmed and married at St. John's Lutheran Church in Jamestown. My grandmother joined St. John's in the 1940's. My mother, aunt and uncle were all confirmed there as well as my four siblings. I have many good memories of Sunday School and Bible School in the Fellowship Hall when there were classrooms on both sides. Later after I got married, we joined Atonement Lutheran Church in Jamestown and were members there for 20 years. We returned to St. John's with my parents. It felt a bit like coming home although things had really changed during that 20 years.

I am the Administrative Assistant at Trinity Lutheran Church. I was hired in November of 2015. Interestingly enough, I attended Kindergarten at Trinity and was taught by Mrs. Vagneur and Mrs. Finch. I enjoy working at Trinity and have met such wonderful people who are devoted to it.

I can't name a time when I found my faith. I was brought up going to church. It was just something that was always there. Throughout my life there have been times where my faith has deepened and been enriched. I attended Confirmation with our children and it strengthened my knowledge and appreciation for the rites and rituals of church. My mom was active in church – she belonged to a circle, helped serve weddings and taught Sunday School. My dad helped with ushering. He installed the corner stone in the new addition at St. John's.

I have always liked the story of David and Goliath. The idea that the weak can overcome the strong gives me hope for the future.

I believe that my faith in God and my prayers are what sustains me in my life. I give all my problems and joys over to God. It gives me comfort and strength.

I pray that all who are searching find hope and love in God. Faith helps to heal and takes a weight off of one's shoulders. It is a welcome release of stress and worry.

I'm a Lutheran because I was raised a Lutheran. I love the music and liturgy. I loved Sunday School and Bible School. Confirmation brought a reaffirmation of my beliefs and interesting discussions.

Traveling has taught me that there are all kinds of people in this world. We can learn from them. It has helped me to be a more tolerant and kind person. It has expanded my world.

Working in a church has opened my eyes to the work that goes on in the background that most people aren't aware of. There is always planning and coming up with new ideas to make worship meaningful for everyone.

There is work and planning on keeping and maintaining a large church. I've been called upon to do many things – bleed boilers, restart chillers, maintain heating and cooling systems. I've dealt with roofers, plumbers, electricians and carpenters. I've learned many new programs and am amazed by my capacity to retain passwords. But it has been very rewarding. I work with wonderful people who are caring and kind. I enjoy it every day.

Come to the Table

Since the Fall of 2020, a free meal has been offered in the community on Tuesday evenings. Conceived as a response to the pandemic, the meal has continued as the need for food assistance continues to be felt in our community. Churches, community groups, and individuals have all helped sponsor a week of the meals, which are distributed at St. John's Lutheran. Seasonal fluctuations in need continue to be addressed. At the moment, about 60 meals are being prepared each week. The goal is to have a hot, nutritious meal offered free of charge to whoever shows up. Nearly all meals are taken "to go" at this point.

Volunteer coordination and sign ups are coordinated through St. John's. When community groups and other organizations sign up, all they need to do is design a menu and prepare the food, all of the flatware and to go boxes are provided by St. John's. Meals need to be ready to serve at 5:00 pm, and food is available until 6:00 pm or until it is all gone.

Everyone who is welcomed at Come to the Table is grateful for the meal and glad to know that as a community, we see the needs of people who are struggling. Meals are used by people who are on hospice, people who are living in apartments and can't get out easily, and to people who are living in their cars.

If you would like to help prepare a meal or provide other support to this community ministry, please contact Gem in the office at St. John's

Council Recap

The St. John's Council met on September 20th John Kleven gave a report from the Call Committee with the recommendation of the Call Committee to call Stephanie Gossett to the position of Associate Pastor to St. John's Lutheran and English Lutheran. The work process of the call committee was reviewed, questions answered, and John departed. The Council received the recommendation and voted to call a special congregational meeting on Sunday October 9th after the 9 am worship service to 1) vote on whether to call Stephanie Gossett and 2) approve a compensation package. Past minutes, pastor report and financials were reviewed. The council approved the names of six 9th graders for confirmation: Jaeger Roemmich, Marissa Moltzen, Mylee Widmer, Zander Wolsky, Belle Sjoström, and Kylee Mees. The Council approved the Silver + level of PORTICO health care benefits for Pr. Erik for 2023. The council appointed a Mission and Ministry Committee for preparing the 2023 spending plan: Mark Wolf, Gary Staab, Pam Golde, and Amy Everson. The council reviewed and approved a mechanical design proposal contract with JPK Engineering, LLC to deliver signed and stamped mechanical engineering plans and specifications for the kitchen upgrades. The Council approved a plan to submit a preapproval application to the Mission Investment Fund for a loan for kitchen construction. The loan has to be approved by a congregational meeting before closing. The employee Handbook Review was completed and approved. Staff position descriptions are nearly complete. Staff reviews (Pr. Erik's by the Executive Team and Gem and Frank by Pr. Erik) are in process. Char gave an update as the St. John's Local Coordinator for Christians in Action. She reviewed the Season of Creation worship schedule, the newly developed website, and our responsibilities and obligations as partners in this venture.

Holden Village 2023- The next trip

Plans are being explored for a multi-congregational trip to this Lutheran retreat center in the Cascade mountains of Washington during the summer of 2023.

If you are interested in learning more about travel details, contact connect@TrinityJamestown.com or call 252-2841 and ask to receive the Zoom link. You will need to provide your name and email address. Identical Zoom information meetings will be held Monday, October 24 at 7:00 pm and Tuesday, October 25 at 7:00 pm. You only need to attend one of these Zoom meetings. You will be asked to register and make a deposit by November 15 if you plan to be part of the group trip.

Answering the Call of Christ

In January of this year I participated in an online workshop with other rostered leaders. As we talked about the joys and challenges of being called to professional ministry we were put into focus groups to think about possible projects. My small group has been working on a project that would encourage congregations to observe Pastor Appreciation month in October. At this point, our video and short pamphlet on “How to Support and Encourage Your Pastor” won’t be out by October of 2022. Thinking about the project has helped clarify for me the purpose of Clergy Appreciation month and I wanted to share those thoughts with all of you this October.

The call to ministry is not one to be taken on lightly. It must, indeed, be a calling from God. In our training and in our professional conversations we are realistic about the difference between this calling and other vocations.

Ministry is not a 9 to 5 job. Caring for God’s people in their joys, their sorrows, and all the needs in between is holy and vital work, but can also be demanding and exhausting work. Those who serve as professional ministers learn early to lean heavily on the God who sustains, supports, and guides us. I frequently quote a fictional pastor who would declare loudly, “Philippians 4:13 (I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength), for pete’s sake!” whenever he was tired or overwhelmed.

This October I want to lift up my colleagues and give thanks for their excellent leadership. I have greatly appreciated my partnership with Pastor Kristi Weber for the last 7 (nearly 8) years. It is so good to have someone to share this calling with. Our gifts are incredibly different and yet wonderfully complimentary. I appreciate her leadership, faith, and vision at Trinity and English and on behalf of the wider church. I appreciate her mentorship and her commitment to making everyone in ministry with her to succeed and excel!

The newly formed Christians in Action partnership has given me an opportunity to work more closely with several other Rostered Leaders and I am SO grateful for their work with and for God’s people. These leaders are; Pastor Erik Weber at St. John’s in Jamestown and English Lutheran in Medina, Pastor Linda Schauer and Michelle Watne at Atonement in Jamestown, Mary Jo Kinzler at Zion in Kulm. It has been such a blessing to share the work of the Gospel with them. Being in ministry together allows us all to do God’s work in the world and serve together in a wider context. We support, cover for, encourage, and pray for one another. Our gifts are varied and when shared it makes the yoke easy and the burden light. Their commitment to area congregations, their flexibility and their creativity have made this partnership feel like a spirit led calling.

I am blessed to have excellent colleagues in the Lutheran church and in the holy catholic church (Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Catholics, Methodists, etc.) who support and encourage me daily, who share this calling with me. Those who I gather with weekly for Text Study as we ponder our sermons together. Those from our Conference (local area) and our Synod (larger area) who meet to ponder ministry for Eastern North Dakota. Those who I gather with in online groups to ponder ministry all over the world. I am grateful for all of them and grateful for their commitment to this calling we share.

I would not be a pastor without those who followed God’s calling in the past. Those who shared God’s love with me and raised me up in the faith. Those who walked beside me and my family in our joys, our sorrows, and all the needs in between. This month I encourage you to remember the pastors in your life. Remember the ways in which their calling has impacted your faith and your life. Then reach out and share with them the impact they have had. Share your appreciation for the calling they follow. Your words will remind them that this calling is holy and makes a real difference in people’s lives. Appreciation expressed gives those who serve strength for the days ahead and joy for the calling Christ has given us!

Blessings, Pastor Susan Haukaas

Christians in Action

Seven ELCA congregations that decided to participate in a first set of goals now call this partnership, Christians in Action. A shared website with links to individual congregation websites is located at NDChristiansAct.org. Additional information about the shared ministry of our congregations will be posted there in the coming weeks.

Updates on current actions:

The call committee from St. John's and English has recommended Stephanie Gossett to be the new Associate Pastor for St. John's and English. A congregational meeting has been scheduled on October 9 for a vote. (see page 1 for additional information)

The search team for a Director of Youth and Family Ministries is reviewing the information from a recent survey about expectations for youth ministries. They are developing a position description and expectations for how this staff member will serve the congregations and community. The position has not yet been posted.

Proposed budgets for September 1– December 31, 2022 and for January 1—December 31, 2023 have been prepared to present to Councils for their planning purposes. At this time, each congregation is asked to pay an equal amount of $50 a month to cover shared administrative expenses (such as a website, domain name, and other similar agreed upon costs.) Each congregation will also be asked to contribute additional funds based on the services they receive from the partnership. For example, if a congregation has a guest preacher from one of the other congregations come on a Sunday, the congregation will pay for that service and for related mileage. A shared partnership bank account with authorized signers from 3 of the 7 congregations has been set up to handle the payments between congregations.

Work will soon begin on a shared "Treasure Chest" of resources. This will be an electronic list of physical items and electronic resources each congregation has that they are willing to share with the other congregations. If you are aware of items that would be appropriate to share, please speak with Char Freeberg (at St. John's) or Joni Zink (at Trinity) so the items get into the Treasure Chest. If working with the Treasure Chest sounds like a role you would enjoy, you can be connected with members from other congregations to tend to this list. (You probably won't be called pirates, unless you like that name.)

Eastern North Dakota Synod Ministry Partnerships

One of the visible benefits of our Eastern North Dakota Synod is the ability to convene people. In September, the Synod brought together all of the Rostered Leaders of our area for a Theological Conference, and coordinated two weekends of retreats for middle school youth. Our Christians in Action partnership registered over 30 people for the Castaway retreat that was held on the weekend of September 23-25th. The theme of this year's retreat was Known and Noticed. These Eastern North Dakota Fall Youth Retreats took a two year break during COVID, but have now returned. Ask one of the youth who participated in this retreat about their experience.

The annual Fall Theological Conference is an expectation of the Synod for every leader. Pastors, Deacons, and Synod Authorized Ministers are all invited to participate. The Fall Theological Conference is the one time a year that our Bishop has dedicated time with all of the leaders in the Synod. Her attention at Synod Assemblies often focuses on lay leaders who participate as voting members. The fall conference allows her to share in the joys and challenges of leaders from across the Synod. This year, Dr. Deanna Thompson, the Director of the Lutheran Center for Faith, Values, and Community and Martin E. Marty Regents Chair in Religion and the Academy at St. Olaf College was the presenter. She shared her experience of living with incurable cancer and the theological insights that grew out of her journey. Coincidentally, she was a classmate of Pastor Erik and Pastor Kristi at St. Olaf in the 7:45 am introductory Greek class in the fall of 1988. It's a small world.

Paul Oman Art Event

August 30th

Pr. Paul painted the Feeding of the 5000. This original artwork is currently at Atonement Lutheran and will rotate around to area congregations every 6 months or so.

Special thanks to the St. John's Endowment for being a sponsor of this event.

Pr. Erik got to wash Paul Oman's paint brushes after the event.

St. John's member Kerrie Soulis presents a check to Danielle Giesler of the Jamestown Middle School for the amount of $321.32. The contribution was made out of the free will offering received at the Paul Oman Art Event on August 30th and will be used by the Middle School Counseling department to address food insecurity/hunger in the school.

Stephanie lists her areas of expertise as: Music/Worship/Arts, Preaching/Worship leadership, Small Group Ministry, Teaching, and Innovation/Creativity. She has experience as a camp counselor and spent a decade as a teacher, including introductory Spanish and five years as a 11th Grade English teacher. She served her pastoral internship at Grace Lutheran Church in Dawson, MN. She is willing to live in the parsonage in Medina. Mutual Expectations: Pastors Erik and Stephanie will provide a total of 20 hours per week of pastoral leadership for English Lutheran Church and 60 hours per week of pastoral leadership for St. John's.

Special Congregation Meetings have been called for by each church council-

A Special Congregational meeting to Call Stephanie Gossett as Associate Pastor and to approve a compensation package will be held at St. John's Lutheran on Sunday, October 9th after 9 am worship.

A Special Congregational meeting to Call Stephanie Gossett as Associate Pastor and to approve a compensation package will be held at English Lutheran on Sunday, October 9th after 11 am worship.

Pastor Stephanie made a visit to our communities on August 29th to Sept. 1st. Due to distance, a second visit is not feasible before a call vote. A sample of her preaching can be found on the St. John's and English Lutheran web-sites (beginning about 5 minutes into the YouTube video.)

A start date will be negotiated after a Call is issued and accepted. The target date range right now is between November 21st and Dec. 5th. Stephanie will coordinate a date for her Ordination with Eastern North Dakota Synod Bishop Tessa Moon-Leiseth, which may be before or after her start date.

Greeting from Child In Our Hands

September is the beginning of the new school year and with that comes challenges and joys. The greatest challenge that our center is facing right now is a shortage of staff. All of our teachers are working as a team to support each other. We believe that everything will improve. Together, we will see it through.

Our biggest motivation and joy are seeing children grow, learn and be happy. We are so excited that there are few new children that have joined our preschool. Also, a few children moved to preschool from God's Little Lamp. Noah's Ark is full of surprises and challenges! More than half of the infants turned one year old in the past few months. They are exploring and learning the world by walking, running, touching and grabbing. Spending time with them and seeing them grow up is precious.

Security is a top priority. As such, we have installed a new security door. Only the staff and families of CIOH have access. A huge thanks to Pastor Erik for making this important upgrade happen.

CIOH still hiring! We have full time and very flexible part time positions available. Please spread the word or even consider applying!

Bibles Presented

On Rally Sunday Spark Story Bibles were presented to 3 year olds: Kaden Krumwiede, Karter Krumwiede, Bryhlee Graber, Olivia Graber, Natalie Stafslie, Alec Ford, Beau Syverson

Sunday School Bibles (NRSV) were presented to 3rd Graders: Ian Trautman, Kayleigh Krumwiede, Brooklyn Graber, Emily Everson, Ryleigh Syerson

If someone you know missed getting a bible over the past few years, please contact the Church Office.

The Quilters Appreciation Event was held in September. Bingo with buttons was the game of the day. If you would like to join the quilters, there are tasks for every ability level.

The first area Youth Event was hosted by St. John's: a giant game of Clue. Here the participants are "gleaning" the rice from among the beans.

Old doors strapped to the truck as seen through a new door

After a year of manufacturing delays and waiting for installers to be available, St. John's finally received a much needed door upgrade. Five exterior doors and one interior locking mechanism were replaced in late August. The entire building was rekeyed. If you have an old building key, you need to see Gem in the office to get a replacement.

Forty one 6th and 7th graders have participated in confirmation so far this year. St. John's is the host site right after school for youth from St. John's, Trinity, United Presbyterian, Hope for the Hopeless, and Montpelier Lutheran to gather and learn about the Bible.

Adult table leaders are still needed. If you have time on Wednesday, check it out from 4 pm until 5:15 pm.
